502-338-8889 Hello, my name is David Quiggins. I began my work history at the age of fifteen. I worked for my uncle during the summer roofing houses. Roofing was very enjoyable for me. It was a trade I could show some of my artistic ability, plus learns from a man who was very inspirational. We specialized in million dollar homes. One of the most memorable days of my young roofing career was when my uncle looked at me and said, "David you was born to roof". That one inspirational message has inspired me to be who I am today, the proud owner of Born to Roof. After finishing college at the University of Kentucky I successfully started my own roofing and
